1818	14th March. Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Major T. F. de Havilland of Engineers, and daughter of T. de Sauvarez of Guernsey, Esq., Attorney-General in that Island, died at the early age of 35 years. She is gone to her God whom she served with zeal and sincerity leaving an afflicted husband and four children to mourn her loss and to emulate her example; her enlightened mind was an ornament to society in which she stood highly respected, and, in the social duties of wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, superior virtue. These virtues emanated from a warm and affectionate heart and were confirmed in true piety—to charity ever disposed, the deserving were never sent empty away. The Almighty Disposer of events bade purity and virtue lead the way, the name of this recorded worth here sought repose ere the cemetery was completed, and the afflicted husband who was forming it for public use submitted with pious reverence to the inscrutable ways of Providence which thus made him her protector in death as in life. She stands first in the awful book and gives a date to the register.

1819	31st August. Johannes Mousley , Hujns Ecclesie Archidiaconus Primus, aged 48.
1820	8th October. Richard Yeldham , Esq., late Treasurer and Secretary to the Government Bank, aged 68 years. This monument was erected by his friends in India as a last tribute of their affectionate regard.
1821	—May. The remains of Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel Dalrymple , c.b., of the Madras Artillery, are interred here. The memorial of his worth is inscribed on a cenotaph erected by his brother officers at the Artillery Cantonment at St. Thomas' Mount, in testimony of their sense of his public services and private virtues.
1821	30th August. The Hon'ble Sir George Cooper , Kt., Senior Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, aged 41 years.
1821	19th November. Sir Samuel Toller , Kt., late Advocate-General of this Presidency, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by his disconsolate family with many tears.
1822	10th August. Henry Harris , m.d., First Member of the Medical Board, who was taken from this life in the 54th year of his age. His superior abilities, his almost unequalled skill, and extreme kindness and humanity in his professional capacity are too well known to need any eulogium here. This humble tribute is erected by his afflicted wife who can never cease to lament the irreparable loss herself and children have sustained or to remember his many virtues and good qualities and whose greatest consolation is the hope of being re-united in another and better world.
1824	24th May. Catherine, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Miles , of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, c.b., k.t.s., daughter and co-heiress of the Ven. Dr. Falconer, Dean of Litchfield, aged 44 years.
1824	31st May. Sir Willingham Franklin , Kt., one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras and formerly Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford, aged 44 years.
1827	16th July. Born 1779. Lieutenant-Colonel John Noble , c.b., Founder of the Corps of Horse Artillery on the Madras Establishment, distinguished by all that adorns the soldier, the citizen, the Christian, the ardour of a chivalrous spirit tempered by sound judgment and sustained by a just confidence in his own resources, generous and warm affections regulated by strict integrity and the crown of his other virtues unaffected and humble piety. After a brilliant career of military service he returned from the short enjoyment of his well-earned labours in his native land to lay his ashes in this theatre of his former glory.
1827 and 1849	21st August. Lieutenant-Colonel William Read , Deputy Quartermaster-General of the King's Troops, Madras, aged 45 years. Here also are deposited the mortal remains of his daughter Elizabeth Margaret , the dearly beloved wife of Brigadier-General S. W. Steel , c.b., Commanding the Ceded Districts Division of the Madras Army, who died of spasmodic cholera at Palaamoodrum on the route to Bellary on 15th February 1849, aged 41. Her remains having been brought to Madras were buried in this her father's grave on 10th April 1849. Truly amiable and affectionate in all the relations of life, she was a thorough Christian in faith and practice, admired and respected by all to whom she was known, and adored by her dependants. She was the pride of her devoted husband's heart, the ornament of his home, and the light of his life.
1828	"O Lord Omnipotent—All Beneficent—All Wise Inscrutable—Thy will be done."
1828	2nd July. Ebenezer Brown , m.d., Inspector of Hospitals and Principal Medical Officer of the King's Troops in the Madras Presidency—erected by the officers of the Department.
1828	29th September. Harriet , wife of J. Dalmahoy , Esq., Assistant Surgeon, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Laurie, Ayrshire; she was born 25th September 1802. The tomb stone has been so sullied by untruth that it is now a poor memorial of those we mourn; she, whose body repose here, was a humble believer in Christ, simple and affectionate in disposition, and of an excellent understanding. Her memory is very dear to her husband and friends, and their love and respect to it are her best monument.
1830	9th October. Henry Byrne , Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Master of the Supreme Court at Madras.
1833	10th October. John Monckton Coombs , Lieutenant-Colonel of 10th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, and Commandant of the Cantonment at Pallavaram, who, after an honourable career of 34 years in the Indian Army, during which he was frequently employed, both on the general staff and confidentially under General McDowell,

	Commander-in-Chief, and the Honourable W. Petrie, Governor of Prince of Wales Island, was mortally wounded at the cantonment of Pallavaram while returning from Ball practice with his brigado by a Havildar of the 5th Regiment, who, infuriated by passion and blinded by intoxicating drugs, mistook the person of his intended victim and aiming at the life of another, sacrificed that of his best friend and protector. The assassin atoned to the laws for his atrocious crime; but what can compensate the loss of a fond husband and indulgent father to his bereaved family, of an esteemed comrade to his companions in arms, of a talented gentleman to the society he graced, and of an accomplished officer to the Government which he served with fidelity and zeal!
1835	15th May. Sir Andrew McDowell, K.C.B., late Major-General in the Honorable Company's Service on the Madras Establishment, aged 72 years.
1835	21st May. Major Henry White, of the 7th Regiment, Native Infantry, and Deputy Military Secretary to Government, aged 45 years.
1836	3rd December. Major-General Sir George Elder, K.C.B., who, after a long career of distinguished service as a soldier in various parts of the world, lost his life by accident at Madras, aged 57 years.
1836	21st December. Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Corrie, First Bishop of Madras; she was married to him while Chaplain at Agra, 16th November 1812; she departed in the Lord on —————. Aged 47 years. "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided."
1837	5th February. The Right Reverend Father in Christ, Daniel Corrie, LL.D., First Bishop of Madras, formerly Archdeacon of Calcutta and Chaplain on the Bengal establishment. He entered on the work of the ministry in India, 21st September 1806, on his Episcopal duties in this Diocese, 28th October 1835, and followed his beloved wife to his eternal rest. Aged 59 years. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours and their works do follow them."
1837	1st November. Major Henry Peach, Keighly, Idlicot, in Warwickshire, Judge Advocate-General of the Madras Army, aged 45 years.
1839	2nd March. James Henry Frith, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Madras Artillery and Companion of the Order of the Bath, aged 52 years. This monument is erected by his only child and her husband in grateful and affectionate regard to his memory and many virtues.
1839	20th July. Ashmead William Pruen, Esq., late Coroner of Madras, aged 24 years. He was destined for the medical profession, but his health gave way under the prosecution of his studies in London and Paris and compelled him to seek a warmer climate. The change, however, was ineffectual and he expired about two years after his arrival in this country, in which he had lived long enough to gain the goodwill, esteem and affection of all who knew him.
1841	2nd February. Kenneth Macaulay, Esq., First Member of the Madras Medical Board, who, after nearly 40 years service in India, departed this life, aged 61.
1841	17th December. James Cuddy, Esq., First Member of the Medical Board, aged 57 years. This monument is erected by few of his more intimate friends in testimony of the high estimation in which his public character as a Medical officer and his private worth as a member of society were held during a protracted service of nearly 37 years in India.
1844	28th September. Thomas Moore Lane, Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to Honourable East India Company on the Medical Establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawab and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweeddale, Kt. and c.b., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honourable labours. Aged 47 years. This tomb is erected as a memorial of affection by his disconsolate widow and children.
1847	26th April. Thomas Green, Esq., A.B., late of Catherine Hall, Cambridge, and Headmaster of the Native Education Society School, Madras, aged 31 years. "O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."
1849	7th August. Mary Louisa Duff, who died at Hoosoor, aged 1 year 4 months and 13 days.
1852	24th July. Leonard Cooper, Esq., Solicitor and late Sheriff of Madras, aged 46 years 4 months and 14 days. "Blessed are the pure in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." This tomb is erected as a tribute of deep affection by his afflicted widow and children.

1824	18th July. Sacred to the memory of Charles Harwood Higginson , Esq., Senior Judge of the Court of Appeal and Circuit for the Southern Division of this Presidency, who departed this life at Trichinopoly. Aged 40 years. Impressed with a deep sense of duty to his Creator, he discharged it in the true spirit of Christianity with meekness and humility. A pious and dutiful son, an attached and affectionate husband, a kind and generous master, a warm and sincere friend;—these were his virtues in private life; in the discharge of his public duties, he evinced a sound judgment, diligent and unwearied attention, a just but merciful consideration of the merits and demerits of those whom it was his duty to judge, pure and incorruptible integrity. His surviving friends have raised this monument in testimony of their love, esteem and respect for one of the best of men.

1832	12th September. Sacred to the memory of James Stephen Lushington , Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, who died at the early age of 28 years, second son of the Right Honourable S. R. Lushington, M.P., late Governor of Madras, and of Anne Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Lord George Harris, late Governor of Madras. Distinguished on his first arrival in India by superior talents and acquirements and passing with rapid success through his studies in the College of Fort William, he gave early promise of that intellectual and moral worth which is recorded with admiring friendship by the pious and accomplished Heber and which his short but brilliant career in this Presidency developed and matured as the Private Secretary of the Governor. He acquired by his impartial courtesy the esteem of every branch of the public service, while his many virtues and endearing qualities secured the approbation and realized the hopes of his affectionate and bereaved father. This monument is erected by the society which he adorned as a just tribute to his departed excellence.

1833	2nd November. Sacred to the memory of Amelia, the beloved wife of Captain C. L. Boileau of Her Majesty's Rifle Brigade and only child of Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Sir Frederick Adam, K.C.B., Governor of Madras; she died at Bangalore after a few days' illness. Aged 21 years.
1836	2nd September and 2nd October. This simple tablet recordeth the names of an affectionate husband and of a dutiful son, Lieutenant-Colonel William Garrard and Lieutenant William Garrard , late of the Madras Engineers, who died at the Neilgherry Hills, the former aged 56, the latter aged 26. Colonel Garrard, through a course of 40 years, gallantly, zealously and with fidelity served his king and country and rose to the honourable station of Chief Engineer, but while thus discharging the duties thereof, the Almighty Ruler of events was pleased to change his earthly abode for a better mansion. His virtuous son was emulating the father's bright example as a faithful servant when his days were likewise numbered. The afflicted widowed mother finds relief in this brief record.
1837	5th February. Sacred to the memory of the Right Reverend Daniel Corrie , LL.D., consecrated at Lambeth, 14th June 1835, first Bishop of Madras. "God forbid that I should glory save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world." With these words this faithful servant of Christ entered on his ministrations at Calcutta in 1806 as a Chaplain of the Honourable East India Company and from thence he preached his first sermon at Madras as Bishop of that See—By the Grace of the Holy Ghost, his light increasingly shown before men, as a preacher of Salvation by faith in Christ, both to his countrymen and to the natives; as a translator of the Scriptures and the Liturgy into the Persian and Hindustani tongues; as a leader of missionary designs and operations; as a founder of churches and schools; and as a promoter of all other measures fitted under the divine blessing to bring the heathen to the knowledge of Christ and to hasten His kingdom. Having thus served his generation by the will of God, he fell asleep in Jesus, 5th February 1837, in the 60th year of his age. This monument was erected to his memory by the inhabitants of Madras.
1840	31st July. Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Maclean , of the Madras Army, late Resident at the Court of Travancore, who died at Coimbatore in the 59th year of his age, after a long and painful illness borne with much submission and terminated in a calm but settled hope of a glorious resurrection in Jesus Christ. The value of his services as a public officer, and the manly, generous, and attractive qualities of his moral character were well known and extremely appreciated, while the retiring simplicity of his religious feelings was his peculiar characteristic as a Christian. This tablet is erected by his children in token of their love to the memory of a most tender and indulgent father and of their gratitude for the devotion with which for their sakes he sacrificed his health, and as it ultimately proved, his life, by an uninterrupted residence in India of more than 37 years. His remains are interred at Ootacamund, in the same grave with those of his beloved wife, whom he lost after a happy union of 30 years, and whom he mourned with a sorrow which time only rendered more touching and sincere.

1842	21st July. Sacred to the memory of Lieutenant-Colonel James Drever, of the 6th Regiment, Madras Infantry, who died from the effects of a coup de soleil whilst gallantly leading his regiment at the storming of the fortress of Chinkeang-foo in China, aged 43 years, and was buried on its ramparts. Also to the memory of Lieutenant and Adjutant James Forsyth of the same regiment, who died of cholera on the expedition to China on board the Honourable Company's Transport Walmer Castle at sea, 12th April 1842, aged 31 years. As a token of esteem and regard this tablet is erected by their brother-officers.
1843	20th September. This marble tablet is dedicated by his eldest son to the memory of the Honourable Sir John David Norton, Kt., who was appointed Her Majesty's Puisne Justice at Madras, 1841, and who died and was buried at sea on the — in the 56th year of his age, after having won universal respect and esteem during his brief tenure of office. He was a man exemplary in every relation of life, a lover of all that is good and beautiful and true. His last words were witness to the purity of his whole life—"God's will be done, I have nothing to fear."
1844	26th September. Sacred to the memory of Thomas Moore Lane, Esq., Surgeon and Oculist to the East India Company, on the Madras establishment, Physician to His Highness the Nawab and Private Secretary to the Most Noble the Marquis of Tweedale, Kt., and c.b., Governor of Fort St. George. He was suddenly called to his rest in the midst of his useful and honourable labours on—, aged 47 years. This tablet is erected as a memorial of affection and respect for a beloved friend, who being dead yet speaketh both in the example of his life and the blessed testimony he has left of the ground of his faith and hope:—
"I desire on this solemn occasion to record my hopes of a joyful resurrection through faith in the atoning blood of my dear Redeemer. Being justified by faith, I have peace with God, before whom I shall stand on the judgment day not in my own righteousness, which is indeed as filthy rags; but in the perfect and imputed righteousness of Christ Jesus, my Lord and my God. This is the anchor of my soul."
"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith."—Heb. 12, 1-2.
1845	17th January. Sacred to the memory of John Dent, Esq., Civil Servant and Provisional Member of Council of this Presidency. He died at Calcutta in the 50th year of his age. Lamented in his public capacity as one who, in the course of 30 years' uninterrupted service, had gained the complete confidence and respect of those officially connected with him and the distinguished approbation of both the Home and Indian Governments. In private life by his amiable and generous disposition, his overflowing kindness, his untiring zeal for the good of all classes, and his high integrity of character, he won the hearts of all who knew him. This monument is erected by the numerous European and Native friends to whom he was thus endeared, in testimony of their affection and esteem and as a memorial of his public and private virtues—
"Whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things."—Phil. iv—8.
1845	9th February. Sacred to the memory of William Griffith, Esq., F.L.S., Madras Medical Service, born at Ilam in the county of Surrey, March 1810. He had attained to the highest eminence in the scientific world and was one of the most distinguished Botanists of the age. He acquired his knowledge by personal investigation in the different provinces of British India, and in the neighbouring kingdoms from the banks of the Helmund and Oxus to the Straits of Malacca, where in the capacity of Civil Assistant Surgeon he died in the 35th year of his age and the 18th year of

His early death is deeply deplored by numerous private friends, and his loss to the cause of science elicited a public and emphatic expression of regret from the Governor-General of India. This tablet is erected as an humble tribute to his memory by a few of his medical brethren of the Medical Service.
1845	21st December. Sacred to the memory of Major George Broadfoot , c.b., 34th Madras Light Infantry, of Kirkwall in the Orkneys, and of London. His valour, foresight, and science, mainly contributed to the success of the glorious defence of Jellalabad, and in the ensuing Afghan campaign, he with his brave Corps of Mountain Sappers acquired enduring renown. His diplomatic and military services as Commissioner of the Tenasserim Provinces and as Governor-General's Agent on the North-West Frontier at a most important crisis of our Indian Empire called forth the eloquent eulogy of Sir H. Hardinge, that he was "as brave as he was able and second to none in all the great qualities of an accomplished officer." He fell at the battle of Ferozeshahar in his 39th year, acting as Aide-de-Camp to the Governor-General. "Though severely wounded, he continued heroically to lead and animate the troops in the assault until mortally wounded in the Sikh camp at the moment of victory." The last of three brothers who died for their country on the battle-fields of Asia—Raised by public subscription throughout the Presidency of Madras.

MONUMENTS IN THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL (ST. MARY'S), BLACK TOWN, MADRAS.
I.—Mural Tablets.
1816	20th April. To the memory of Samuel Mookartish Moorat , Esq., a much respected member of the Armenian community, who departed this life at Madras. By integrity and urbanity in public dealing, by hospitality and benevolence in private life, by exemplary conduct both in moments of difficulty and those of prosperity, and by numerous acts of beneficence to the necessitous, he became beloved by all who knew him. In token of conjugal and filial affection, this monument is erected by his sorrowing family.

1828	2nd July. Sacred to the memory of Anna Raphael, relict of the late Samuel Moorat , Esq., of Madras. This tribute of filial affection is erected by her sons Edward and John Moorat, to commemorate the death of their revered mother in the 57th year of her age.
1837	10th October. Within this chapel lie interred the remains of Edward Samuel Moorat , Esq., eldest son of the late Samuel Mookartish Moorat, Esq., born 28th September 1793. His brother John Samuel Moorat, as a tribute of affection, inscribed this tablet to his memory.—R.I.P.
1842	23rd February. This tablet has been erected by the Catholics of Madras as a grateful tribute to the memory of the Rev. William Kelly . He filled the chair of English Elocution for 9 years in the Royal College of Maynooth with universal applause. He resigned his professorship in the year 1838 and volunteered his services for the Madras mission, where, by his writings and preaching, he rendered essential service to religion, education and science. In February 1841 he was sent to Bengal on a special mission of charity, and eminently succeeded in allaying the unhappy differences which then distracted the Catholics of that place. He lived in the unremitting exercise of his sacred duties, and died, after receiving the last consolation of religion, at Hussianabad in the Vicariate Apostolic of Bengal, where his remains were deposited on the 23rd February 1842 in the 38th year of his age. May he rest in peace.—Amen.
Of your charity pray for the souls of the Religious of the Presentation Order, whose remains are here interred:—

1871 26th April. In perpetual memory of Nina Margaret, the beloved wife of John Arathoon, Esq., of Nungumbukum, Madras, who departed this life after a long and painful illness, endured with humble resignation to the Divine will, aged 65 years. She was a loving and affectionate wife, a devoted mother, and a true friend. The most marked trait in her character was goodness of heart, which ever prompted her to deeds of tenderness, self denial and charity to all around her, particularly to the suffering, the afflicted and the poor. In death she afforded a bright example of the victory of faith, of the sustaining power of religion, and of the peace which flows from a simple childlike trust in God.
In compliance with a wish often expressed by her towards the close of her days, her remains were borne to their last resting place in this Cathedral on the shoulders of her six surviving sons. This tablet is erected by her bereaved husband who was permitted to share her joys and sorrows in married life for 52 years.
